

Maratha Vidya Prasarak Samaj's
COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK, NASHIK
Anti-Ragging Committee

Genesis and objective of the Anti-ragging Committee

College of Social Work, Nashik has instituted its 'Anti-Ragging Committee' as per the UGC guidelines for creating ragging free campus and redressal of cases if arise in the Institutional Areas.

Anti-Ragging Committee will be the Supervisory and Advisory Committee for a ragging free environment in the college campus. The committee will be responsible for initiating precautionary measures and actions to prevent ragging and create a discrimination-free environment. This committee also looks into scheming the strategies and initiate relevant activities to create a positive environment for students and protect any incidence of the ragging.

As a part of taking appropriate actions if any incidence arises in the institutional campus, the committee has powers to decide the punishment provisions for case by case. The committee members and their details are given below for the help and support if any student can face the incidence of ragging or similar type actions.
